AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Colds, Coughs and Hoarse BRIMPIELD, Mass., 20th Dec. '55.
Dr. J. O. AYER: I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for coughs, hearseness, influenzs, and the concomitant symptoms of a cold, is your Cherry Pectoral.

Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints.

Brother Ayer: I will cheerfully certify your Pectoral is the best remedy for the cure of Whooping Cough, Oroup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people.

HIRAM CONKLIN, M. D.

AMOS LEE, Monterey, Ia., writes, 3d Jan., 1856: "I had a tedious influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your Pectoral by the advice of our clergyman. The first does relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs; less than one-half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

Sir: Your Cherry Pectoral is performing marvellous cures in this section. It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption, and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last 40 years.

HENRY L. PARKS, Merchant. A. A. RAMSEY, M. D., Albion, Monroe County, Iowa, writes Sept. 6, 1855: "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your Cherry Pectoral for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable."

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most con vincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its ffects upon trial. CONSUMPTION.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which ured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some ne human aid can reach; but even to those the Cherry Pectoral affords relief and comfort.

Aston House, N. Y. City, March 5, 1856.

Dector Ayer, Lowell: I feel it a duty and pleasure to inform you what yeur Cherry Pectoral has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice recommended a trail of your medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do your skill, for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well.

Yours, with gratitude and regard.

A Real Native.

The ignorance of this country among otherwise well informed Englisn folks was curiously illustrated in the case of General W——, (a good fellow, but bogus general) who visited England a few years ago. Having occasion to pass a few days in a provincial town, which boasted its literary coterie, he recieved an invitation through an acquaintance from Miss Blue Stocking to attend a country with the c source. The general, of course, went, and, being a fine handsome, agreeable fellow, he was quite a lion. In the course of an evening Miss Blue, who had secured his undivided attention, tapped him playlully with her fan, and said:—"Do you know that you are a naughty man?" "How so, madam, asked the general. "Why for decieving us all so; but I shan't tell on you, of course, only every one in the room has not seen as much as I." The Gen. became nervous, and thought of course that Gen. became nervous, and thought of course that he must have committed some terrible faux pas; but as the lady seemed kind and forgiving, he determined to probe the matter. "My dear lady, I am very sorry if I have been guilty of any dereliction; do tell me, that I may apologise." "Oh! said Miss Blue, "it's only pretending to be an American!" "Pretending to be an American! But I am an American, madam." "Yes, perhaps you live there; but you are not a native, you know." "On my honor, madam, a real live native of the great state of New York." "That will do for the company to think, general," said the literary lady, "and of course I shall not undecieve them; but you must know I had a verydistnguished American gentleman, who was a native, to lunch with me this morning, and I was so sorry I could not have like you. His raven hair curled in such beautiful little ringlets all around his head, and his complexion was dark—very dark—a perfect Othello of a fellow."

"A nigger! by George!" thought the; general; and begging our lady not to expose his little ruse, in trying to pass off for an American, he got into a

DECLINE OF THE ANTI-SLAVERY SENTIMEFT .-It is very evident from numerous indications that meet the eye, that a very decided decline in the anti-slavery sentiment is taking place throughout the Northern States. The National Era an anti-slavery journal published in the federal capital, not long since confessed that its circulation had fallen off one-half of late. It is well known at our post-office that the anti-slavery organ of our country parts, the Weekly Tribrne, has lost quite as large a share of its subscription list. This is also manifest from the piteous appeal which it makes to its friends to come to its aid and advertise in its columns at half price.— No journal doing a good business, or with an increasing circulation, would show evidence of such

The late elections tell the same story in the extraordinary diminution of the anti-slavely vote, The truth is, that the people of the free States, the agricultural, commercial and manufacturing classes, have grown tired of the about it. The bug, and want to hear no more about it. The late revulsion first diverted their thoughts from the religious revivals, which have no anti-slavery nonsense about them, are another evidence of the disfavor into which the nigger feeling has fallen among these pious and godly classes who have been heretofore its warmest friends. In two or three years it is not unlikely that anti-slavery journalism in the North will have expired by inanition.—N. Y. Herald. WHY 'EGYPT' WAS NAMED .- A correspondent

On his way down he And can only be maintained by would tell the people "he was going down to Egypt for corn." The early frost in that country enterprises, which mark the highured the corn so it would not sprout, and they were obliged to have seed corn from some place. This was thirty-six or thirty-seven years ago.—
I well recollect the circumstances, for I used to help to shell the corn myself, which my father used to sell them for seed. This was before Chicago was thought of as a city.

"It is no extravagance of national vanity to af-firm this of the American Senate. Cynical scrib-blers may essay to disparage its character, as they indulge a fashionable lament over the degeneracy of the times; but no man of observati judgment will admit that of its former giftom the highest point of its former git there be not three such men on its floor there be not three such all will allow the houn, Clay and Webster, all will allow that it pre-sents an average of ability and reputation far above the contemporaries of these illustrious ora-tors. THE HALF REASONING ELEPHANT.—A Calcutta correspondent of the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser, a giving an account of a visit to Barrackpore,

Mexico and the United States.

When an apple is ripe, the least wind or acci dental disturbance will cause it to drop off the tree. But to knock off crade fruit, may not only rob the parent tree, but destroy all that falls, and render it useless to everybody forever. This is the best illustration of our position and true policy in regard to Mexico at the present time.—
There is no question that there is just now a violent antipathy and prejudice against the "North Americans," i. e., the people of the United States, and although we may laugh at all this fury, and know very well how to silence it at the cannon's ity members of the election boards to which they mouth, yet these national antipathies are the mos formidable of all barriers in the way of useful profitable and just annexation of populous pro vinces. They render it impossible, on our princi-ples of government. Beyond a doubt, if we only fulfill our duties patiently and kindly to them, and wait, the whole of Mexico will be in our arms in less than twenty years, dropping there naturally, easily, and in all ripeness. It will only be for us to say whether, and on what terms, we will receive her. The internal divisions of the coun try, the complete demoralization of all govern ments rendering it impossible for any leader to stand for six months, is naturally causing all thoughtful men to look abroad for some nation posses ing strong resources to give Mexico inter-nal peace and security. While some few aristocrats are looking to imbecile Spain, the most philosophical, dispassionate and progressive look to the United State, to be incorporated with which alone could give relief from the horrible anarchy into which affairs have been thrown. The whole nation would be knocking at our doors at this mo ment, but for two things—the influence of the priests and the recollections of the late war. Neither of these are insuperable. The force of the Church has nearly exhausted itself in the intigues and struggles in which the country has been engaged, and the more mild and truly religious and intelligent Catholics, both priests and people, would ask no more than all would be wil-ling to concede, the most perfect liberty of conscience, and protection to the Church of its prop erty, together with freedom from molestation That there is a deep-seated enmity to the United States at the present moment, among the unreflecting masses of the people, is beyond coubt. It is the natural effect of the late war and present contiguity. And yet there can be no doub that, less than twenty years ago, there was far more formidable prejudice existing on both sides of the Canada frontier. But peaceful commerce moderate counsels, railroads, and friendly inter course, have so sottened down all asperit now our institutions are looked up to and imitated; nor is there, except in a little mock royalty at the seats of government, more difference be tween Canada and the neighboring States than between some of our own States themselves Our decimal coinage, our systems of education our freedom of religion and separation of church from state, have all been adopted by the Canadas, adopted from us. Our manners and customs prevail, and what is most singular, three-fourths of all the provincial newspapers are filled with the details of what is going on in our own city, in New York, and in Boston, rather than in London, Liverpool, and Birmingham, or even in Quebec and Montreal.

The Legislature of Sonora and Chihahua have protested against the sale of any part of the national domain of Mexico. But the paper that announces that fact admits that it is whether this protest does or does not contain the actual sentiment of the people of those domains that would be thus transferred. It admits that the owners of large estates are eager for the change; but tries to make out that the majority of the common people are averse to it. Time to pursue? Simply to wait. The desire of the few will extend itself like leaven throughout the If ten years of peace have brought round the most deeply interested, ten years more will bring round the masses. A war, a quarrel, any inter meddling with the internal squabbles of the country, makes enemies for the United States, and retards the desire of the people for annexation in calculably. If, in business, one man wants to buy the other out, the best way is not to quarrel or appear inimical, or foment his enemies, but to do him liberal acts of sincere kindness and friend-Tuen it will be easy to trade on fair terms. The course that regulate honorable indi viduals is that which ought to guide all nationa arcrangements. The sooner nations act on this the better.—Phil. Ledger.

The Opposition Party.

As the "new party" has more or less difficulty infinding a name suitable and proper to express its character, we propose that it shall be designated the "Opposition Party." It is more than probable that it will always be in opposition.— Since 1800, with rare and doubtful exceptions, it has been the "opposition party." In 1824 it came into power, but Mr. Adams had long professed to be one of the disciples of Democracy and so it can hardly be said that those who have since acted as whigs, Americans, know-nothings and republicans were anything else than an opposition party even then. In 1840 they had a lease of power running over thirty days. Providence was against them, or rather disposed to keep then in their proper place—in opposition. In 1848 they again got into the government; but Providence soon frustrated their plans and drove them into the opposition. Mr. Fillmore's administration witnessed the triumph in fact of the principle of non-intervention or self-government, and thus thrust the opponents of that measure into

The price of wood for fuel varies from $1.60 to $2.75 per cord, and is highest in counties through which main lines of railway pass, on account of the country o and is highest in counties through which main lines of railway pass, on account of the vast quantities of wood consumed by the locomotives. These roads consume annually the product of twelve thousand acres of land. Farm labor is uniformly high, the average wages being $15 per month and hoard. This is owing to the growth of towns and manufactures, which steadily causes the agricultural supply to diminish, so that large farmers are only able to secure their crops by the use of machinery. The Republican City Council Opposed to a Fair Election.

The Republican members of the Council, or Wednesday evening, appointed all the Inspectors and Judges of the coming charter election, the nominations having first been agreed upon in Republican caucus. They refused to permit the Democratic Councilmen to nominate the minority members of the election boards to which they are entitled by courtesy and fair dealing. At the last charter election, when the Democrat were in power, the Councilmen from each ward were permitted to select the election board in their respective wards, without reference to party, a striking contrast to the action of the present Republican Council. Why this movement by the Republican Council unless chicanery and fraud is designed? If a fair election is intended by the Republicans there certainly could be no objection to allowing the Democrats the privilege of selecting one member upon each board. But when they boast that they have set the triggers to receive all Republican ballots at the ballotbox regardless of the character or qualifications of the voter, there is good reason to suspect foul play. In this manifestation of Republicanism we have evidence of its illiberality and its disposition to exercise power arbitrarily. If they are so despotic in small things, when they have but little power entrusted with them, they would soon cast the old blue laws of Connecticut in the shade if the opportunity was given them. In this operation of the Republican Council we Ward Last Night. The Democracy of the invincible Seventh Ward held a glorious meeting last night, on Virinia Avenue, near the Depot Church.

Republican Regard for Popular Sovereignty-The Monstrous Intended Swindle Confessed.

The Black Republican Council refused to give the Democrats of the Wards any voice in selecting judges and inspectors of the city election In a secret caucus, among themselves, they pack ed their men, and by a strict party vote, an iron drill, over the remonstrances of the representatives of some of the wards, forced them upon the people. The reason is known. It has been confessed. It is part of a premeditated scheme to pack the election-to carry it by fraud. Democratic voters are to be excluded from the polls, and every man who appears with a Republican ticket, whether a legal voter or not, is to be allowed to vote it. We have good authority to say that one of the men appointed stated this yesterday morning to a supposed Black Republican friend. We have the name, the time, the place.

Democrats, must this be submitted to? It must. because we will not resort to riots and mobs .-We will get redress by legal means. Let every Democratic voter go to the polls, and let measures be taken at once to enable him to get his vote deposited in the ballot box. This can be done-there is a legal power somewhere that can secure him this right.

BLACK REPUBLICAN IMPORTATIONS .- An honest Republican gentleman, not a candidate, nor a politician, nor the dirty editor of a dirty Black Republican sheet, but a master carpenter, was applied to a day or two since, by Black Republican partizans, tricksters, swindlers, wireworkers, and managing cheaters, to find employment for some twelve or fifteen hands, who would arrive in the city on Saturday, and remain over until Wednesday next. The object was shamelessly indicated to the honorable man, and it gives us inexpressible pleasure to say that he indignantly and practices. We have the name of the gentleman. He will vote the Black Republican ticket; but his upright conduct in this matter demonstrates clearly enough that the voters, not the leaders of the Black Republican party, are conscientious although, as we sincerely believe, mistaken. We would welcome to the Democratic ranks, with open arms, such men whenever they see the error of their political ways.

May-Day Educational Meeting. We are requested to state that the Teachers' and Young People's Association of Pike and other townships, will meet at the Center House, on Saturday, May 1st, 1858, at 10 a. m.

The literary festivities of the morning will consist of Essays and Declamations, Readings from the Piketon Rural Offering, and music.

In the afternoon, addresses will be delivered by Professor James R. Challen, of the University at Indianapolis, and Mr. A. R. Benson, of Greenwood. A discussion on female edu will also occur, and music will enliven the scene Indianapolis will be well represented, quite a number of our citizens are going to be prese All are invited, and will be welcomely received

The report of the Kansas Conference Committee coming up,

Mr. Doughas objected to the substitute because it did not submit the Lecompton constitution fairly to the people, but made its admission virtually contingent on the acceptance or rejection of the land grants.

He objected, also, to the offer of a bribe to come in with forty thousand population under one of the land grants.

He objected, also, to the offer of a bribe to come in with forty thousand population under one kind of a constitution, and not unless they have a population of ninety thousand under the other. Committee?

What was this but Congressional intervention, offering a bounty on one hand and a penalty on the other to control the result? This left no freedom of election.

For five months he (Douglas) has stood as he now stands with the Democracy of his State, on the principle of submitting the constitution under which the people of Kansas shall come into the Union to the direct vote of the people,

Mr. Douglas contended that the glorious hand of Democrats who acted with him in Congress and out of Congress have achieved a triumph. He sought no personal triumph and would not therefore enter into the question of which the party has backed down from its original pretensions, although the government did say at the company of the drawn from him whether Committee?

How, he asked, would his friend from Virginia,

(Mr. Hunter) as a Southern man, like to have Congressional intervention brought to influence the admission of new States? The times may be reversed. There may become an anti slavery majority in Congress, and would he like a grant of a million acres of bounty for a new free State to come in with 40,000 population? tion. What the consequence of the position he has taken is he knows not, but if he cannot remain in public life with the principle he maintained, he would return into private life, where he could enjoy the approval of his conscience.

Mr. Brown addressed the Senate in favor of the conference substitute, describing it as a peace measure with healing in its wings.

Mr. Toombs warmly defended the conference substitute, denying any bribe of lands, on the contrary the committee refused to give Kansas

Mr. Green took occasion to refer to Mr. Wilson's charge of fraud, and said, as out of the fullson's charge of fraud, and can't as dut of the times of his heart and the mouth that speaketh, he would like to put him under oath and cross question him whether any of these frauds were committed in Kansas until Wilson went there, and whether he did not send for Jim Lane to concoct he matter with him.

Mr. Wilson utterly repudiated and reminded Green of frauds that were committed by his conituents, the Missourians. Mr. Bell explained the reasons that would

Mr Marshall explained why he had been found voting with the Republicans, and tendered to that party his tribute of thanks for their patriototism; and it conclusion, quoted remarks of the Richmond South newspaper, that no more slave States shall come into the Union was the issue. He had no fear of disunion. The people of the South will listen to no such clamor. He had exerted himself to get the Republican members to vote as they did with an eye to the fact that there were disunion platforms which that vote would close over forever.

people when their representatives are engaged on measures the authors of which do not and cannot agree on its meaning, whether or not it submits the Lecompton Constitution to the people. One of the managers, the gentleman from Georgia, Mr. Stephens, yesterday emphatically declared the peinciple of non-submission, while another gentleman, from Ind., Mr. English, maintained that the Constitution is to be submitted.

Mr. English wanted to know on what authority Mr. Marshall made the statement—he called on him to name the time and place.

Mr. Marshall replied that it was an inference drawn from his, English's remarks, and asked him whether he understood the report of the Committee? Committee?

Mr English replied that the bill was drawn up in good English, (laughter,) and he supposed that the gentleman was competent to judge the meaning of the words of the bill.

Mr. Marshell replied, that if that was all the answer Mr. English could give, he was willing it should go out to the country with the declaration that the authors of the report were divided as to its meaning. When Mr. Coverse great

The administration has receded from that proposition, and he and his party are asked to recede from the position they have taken, because the other party have made so many concessions, but it is no reason he should concede a principle from which he cannot recede. Strike out the land grant and strike out the limitation of the population and he would vote for the conference proposed at once, in other words, if you wish to make the proposal fair you must give equal terms to Kansas under

Mr. Wilson replied to Toombs in reference to the seventeen millions—a direct bribe is offered—two millions of public lands are advertised to be sold on the first of July, and here is a direct bribe of fire per cent. on the sales, amounting to $100,000 offered if Kansas will come in before the first of July.

On the other hand, the direct penalty is that she shall be kept out of the Union, although every one acquainted with Kansas knows that the feelings of the people of that territory is almost unanimous in favor of admission.

Mr. Wilson then went into a lengthened discussion of the history of the Kansas-Lecompton constitution, and the charge that was now being at tempted to bribe and threaten her into it under the project gotten up by the conference committee

HOUSE—The House resumed the consideration of the Kansas report.

Nr. Cox, of Ohio, defined his position. He was the first in the House to oppose the Lecompton constitution; but, after a careful consideration of his du y to his party, to his State, to the Union, and to the welfare of the people, he had come to the deliberate conclusion to support the report of the committee, though by it the constitution is not submitted; yet the means are provided for obtaining the sense of the people—they can reject it if they do not like it. No bribe has been made, as has been asserted, to Kansas, for she will get the lands as have other new States. Governor Walker says that Kansas will have the requisite population by next autumn for one In the spirit of concession, and for the sake of the United Democracy, to which he ewed all he had, with a view to peace and the despatch of public business, he had determined to give the report of the committee his support.
